In the tranquil Lyth Valley the Damson Dene Hotel sits surrounded by some of the Lake District's most spectacular scenery. Only a short drive from Lake Windermere but nestled nicely away from all the busy tourist spots the Damson Dene is perfect for those who crave a quiet break away.

Our Heron View restaurant looks out over our spectacular gardens and the Lyth Valley, giving you a view to remember when eating your Full Cumbrian Breakfast. Each evening our restaurant offers a delicious Table d'hôte Menu from our team of inspiring chefs. In the Damson Tree bar you can enjoy a pint of the finest locally brewed ales and sit back and take in panoramic views over the garden. Or if you prefer, we have a relaxing lounge where you can settle down by the log fire.

At the Damson Dene you can unwind and re-energise in our leisure centre – as a hotel guest you have free unlimited use throughout your stay. If you feel like a pamper come and visit our own Holistic & Beauty Salon, Healing Hands, where you can unwind and enjoy a range of treatments such as Swedish Massage, Manicures & Pedicures, Facials and much more.

- 40 bedrooms, including ten with Four Poster beds and ensuite Jacuzzi bath and three annexe family suites in the grounds
- Beautifully landscaped grounds

Directly overlooking Lake Windermere in lovely private grounds, the Newby Bridge Hotel is the perfect place to stay in the Lake District. The hotel has 41 well appointed rooms, ranging from large family cottage rooms, to newly refurbished bedrooms overlooking the beautiful gardens, to luxurious Four Poster Bedrooms with Jacuzzi Baths and views of Lake Windermere.

The Garden View Restaurant is a traditional Oak Panelled room, creating a quiet intimate atmosphere in the evening where you can enjoy our delicious Table d'hôte Menu. In the morning it is transformed to a sunny bright room with views out over the gardens, here you can enjoy your hearty Cumbrian Full breakfast. We have a busy Huntsmans Bar which offers a popular selection of rustic lunches and meals, and a selection of locally brewed traditional real ales all for you to enjoy next to a roaring log fire.

If you would like to unwind, we have a small leisure centre which is run privately for our guests; here you can enjoy a leisurely swim, a wallow in the hot tub or have a lie down in the steam room. And for the fishermen we can offer mooring and fishing rights on Lake Windermere. The choice is yours.

- 41 bedrooms including 10 Four Poster rooms with ensuite spa bath
- Lovely private gardens
- Private leisure centre, exclusive to hotel guests, with pool, spa pool, mini gym and steam room
- Oak-panelled restaurant and The Huntsman's traditional bar
- Free wifi access
- Large private car park
- Three function rooms
- Dogs welcome

Family Friendly

Visiting the Lake District is a great experience for all the family and here at our three hotels we have provided fantastic facilities for your children to enjoy. Our swimming pools & leisure centres offer great entertainment for those rainy afternoons and when the sun shines we are in easy access to many of the popular activities such as Go Ape & South Lakes Wild Animal Park.

All our hotels are happy to welcome you and your most beloved pets to our hotel, at a nominal charge!

We love our pets and know that you do too, so we would like to welcome them to the hotel and hope that they enjoy their holiday to the Lake District.

Dog Friendly

Shopping

Whether you want fashion, food, a present for the family or simply just to browse, a spot of retail therapy in the Lake District is not to be missed. The Riverside Hotel is in the centre of Kendal, a thriving Market Town with no fewer than three shopping centres including the iconic new £100m KVillage. Kendal's winding streets are also home to some lovely historic independent shops such as The Chocolate House (1657) and Farrer's Coffee House (1819)
